

Regulatory Systems of Nutrient Labelling in Japan

HIROSHI AIMOTO
Director, Food Labelling Division,
Consumer Affairs Agency

< Summary >

The Consumer Affairs Agency (CAA) was established as a new government office in 2009, and oversees the regulatory system for nutrient labelling.

The CAA presides the Roundtable on Nutrient Labelling which discusses the mandatory rules for nutrient labelling and will report on future policies by this summer.
